"Finance leaders are often limited by fragmented data as they strive to deliver actionable insights," said Riju Vashisht, Chief Growth Officer, Genpact. "Our Finance Data Hub unifies financial information, improving data quality, trust, and auditability, so teams can prioritize strategic decision-making. By collaborating with industry-leading partners, such as Databricks, we can help businesses realize the true value of their data with advanced technologies, deep industry knowledge, and global talent."

Finance Data Hub solves data challenges by consolidating structured and unstructured data, such as contracts across operations, supply chain, financial planning, tax, and treasury into one central platform. This unified platform, built on the Databricks lakehouse foundation of open data formats and open lakehouse architecture provides finance teams with clean, reliable data in near-real-time, enabling advanced analytics and AI-driven insights for faster, more informed decision-making. With robust governance and simplified compliance, the solution enhances productivity and empowers CFOs to adapt swiftly to market changes, while managing spend, cash flow, and profitability.

"As businesses increasingly look to harness the power of data intelligence, having clean, accurate, and accessible data is crucial to building AI systems," said Barry Dauber, Vice President of GenAI GTM, Databricks. "Our partnership with Genpact enables finance professionals to leverage AI and machine learning, optimizing performance, enhancing forecasting, and helping stay compliant with evolving regulations."

With over 20 years of experience, Genpact is a trusted partner for global enterprises, offering end-to-end finance and accounting (F&A) solutions that optimize operations, enhance compliance, and support strategic decision-making. From transactional processing to advanced analytics and AI-driven insights, Genpact helps CFOs and finance teams unlock the full potential of their financial data.

The Finance Data Hub, built on the Databricks Data Intelligence Platform, is the latest example of Genpact's commitment to innovation, helping finance leaders transform their operations and stay ahead in a rapidly changing business environment.
